FEDERATION PROCEDURES

A. GENERAL

1. Clubs, districts and regions may take public positions:
 - a. in implementation of any adopted position of the Federation;
 - b. in support of the objects and purposes of the Soroptimist organization upon a two-thirds vote of those members, clubs, districts or regions advocating such support; however,
 - c. the Federation, its regions, clubs or members in their capacity as a Soroptimist shall not participate or intervene, directly or indirectly, in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for elected public office.
2. Within the Federation, regions, districts, clubs and members have the privilege and responsibility of voting for candidates of their choice. There shall be no circularization of information or campaign materials by anyone for a candidate or nominee including but not limited to electronic and postal mail, facsimile, telephone, printed materials, brochures or leaflets. Only information about the nominees or candidates circulated by their respective nominating committees is allowed. While it is appropriate to have a presentation of all candidates and/or a reception hosted by the region, any social event to promote an individual candidate is prohibited.
3. There shall be no cross solicitation of Soroptimist clubs outside the region on subjects of policy, project promotion or requests for funds without authorization of the Federation Board. Cross solicitation includes sending of postal mail, email, petitions, telephone calls, posts on websites (including hosting online auctions on public sites using the club's name as the seller), or other forms of requests for project or fundraising support. Regions may adopt procedures for the canvassing of clubs within the region.
4. The Federation shall publish an official magazine, Best for Women. There shall be at least three issues each year. The magazine shall be available by annual subscription.
5. English is the official language of the Federation. Budgetary provisions will be made for appropriate materials, as established by the Board, to be translated into other languages used within the Federation. Clubs may choose to receive these translated materials rather than the English version. All appropriate Federation material that must be translated shall be authorized through Headquarters. If a region or club translates any material used by the Federation, it shall provide a copy to Headquarters.
6. Policy and Position Statements on behalf of Soroptimist International of the Americas may be made only by the elected Federation officers and the Executive Director. Statements made by other Soroptimists do not necessarily represent the official views of the Federation. However, members may utilize the information found in Soroptimist International of the Americas' "Be It Resolved" or Soroptimist International's "Where We Stand" published material.
7. Establishing a strong visual identity is an important component of SIA's branding strategy. Clubs and regions are urged to implement SIA's visual identity in a careful and consistent manner. SIA's logo consists of a stylized "S", the word "Soroptimist" and the tagline “Best for Women.” Use of the logo is authorized and encouraged on all club or region stationery, websites, bulletins, programs, and educational materials, as well as on badges, decorations and printed matter for region conferences, district meetings, workshops and any other official Soroptimist function. The federation has available, free of charge, the logo (in various formats) as well as stationery, business card and envelope templates for use by regions and clubs. They are available from the members-only website at www.soroptimist.org. The logo should be printed in PMS 659 (blue) or black.

8. SIA has registered the Soroptimist International emblem, SIA logo, tagline (Best for Women), Live Your Dream logo and various federation programs for service and/or trademark protection in the United States of America and other Soroptimist countries. Use of the registered marks are governed by the “Use of SIA Registered Marks Policies”, available on the SIA website www.soroptimist.org
9. SIA Headquarters shall be the sole supplier of all Soroptimist jewelry, including those items that employ the SI emblem, SIA logo, Live Your Dream logo or other registered marks. Non-jewelry items are subject to SIA’s non-exclusive limited use license. Every Soroptimist should ensure that the official Soroptimist-owned registered marks continue to enjoy the respect they have earned over the years.
10. The membership pins shall be available only through federation headquarters. By custom in our federation, the membership pin is worn on the left, close to the heart. Members may choose to wear other Soroptimist jewelry in lieu of or with the membership pin, keeping in mind that headquarters is the sole supplier of jewelry. Members wear the pin that shows their highest rank at official functions and may simultaneously wear recognition pins such as the Laurel Society pin. Pins bearing the Soroptimist logo may be used for daily use to encourage conversation about Soroptimist and its mission and may be worn anywhere that is appropriate and in good taste.
11. Club or region websites must utilize the website templates or adhere to SIA’s Web Site Development Guidelines available without charge from the members-only section of www.soroptimist.org. Specifically, such web sites shall not publish the name or contact information of any Soroptimist member on a publicly accessible site without the specific permission of that individual. In order to maintain SIA’s club and member database, all club or member directory information must be obtained through Headquarters. No advertising or portal to purchase goods or services shall be established on a club or region web site without first obtaining the written permission of SIA. There shall be no replication of SI or SIA program information, applications or forms. Instead, links should be established to such sites that ensure that the information is kept current at its origin. Failure to comply with these guidelines will require that a club or region remove or modify the site upon request of Headquarters or jeopardize the club’s good standing, or region’s relationship with federation, until such time as the site is in compliance.
12. Personal contact data (directory information) shall be maintained by headquarters in a secure and confidential manner. Its use for commercial or solicitation purposes shall be denied to all. Requests from non-Soroptimists for contact information shall also be denied. Only the Federation board of directors may grant exceptions. Soroptimists have access to directory information through the secure members only section of the SIA web site. Regions may request electronic rosters or mailing labels of clubs and/or members in their own region. Headquarters shall maintain a full privacy policy that complies with the highest ethical and legal standards concerning the collection and security of data obtained. This policy will be updated as changes are made both within the organization and within the business community. The full policy is available on the external part of the Federation's web site at www.soroptimist.org.

- c. If no nominations are received by the deadline, headquarters shall wait a period of 60 days and then solicit the clubs for nominations again. The process for nomination and election of the President-elect shall occur on schedule, without prolonged waiting, for the delayed election to be completed. Time frames should be shortened so that a replacement is duly elected within 90 days.
